

William C. Rupp, M.D., Vice President, Mayo Clinic and Chief Executive Officer, Mayo Clinic Jacksonville

Experience. Consultant in Medical Oncology, Midelfort Clinic – Mayo Health System, 1982-2003; President and CEO, Luther Hospital/Midelfort Clinic – Mayo Health System, 1993-2001; Vice Chair, Mayo Health System, 1997-2007; Consultant in Medical Oncology, Immanuel St. Joseph's – Mayo Health System, 2003-2007; President and CEO, Immanuel St. Joseph's – Mayo Health System, 2002-2007; Mayo Clinic Board of Trustees, 2009-present; Chief Executive Officer, Mayo Clinic Jacksonville, 2009-present.

Education. Dartmouth College, B.A., 1968; University of Minnesota Medical School, M.D., 1976; University of Cincinnati Medical Center, Medicine Residency, 1976-1979; University of Cincinnati Medical Center, Fellowship in Hematology - Oncology 1979-1981; University of Cincinnati Medical Center, Chief Medical Resident, 1982.

Professional Organizations and Other Activities. Consultant, Institute for Health Care Improvement; Member, American College of Physician Executives; Board of Directors, Ayres Associates; President-elect, Jacksonville Regional Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors